

TREE PLANTING WORKSHOP

Friday, October 20th, 1-4 PM

Barred Owl Brook Farm

735 Lake Shore Rd, Essex, NY 12936

Limited space available

This farmer-led, hands-on tree planting workshop will help you succeed when planting trees for your farm. Join the host and owner of Barred Owl Brook Farm to learn about tree types and the various sizes of nursery stock, techniques when planting with an auger, some essential hand tools, and post planting considerations needed for using trees as a regenerative farm practice for water quality. There will be a substantial discount offered to participants at this workshop for any nursery stock purchases. Register by October 18th and/or learn more about this tree planting workshop-
